

New tax and corporate horizons: France

France (in French language: /fʁãs/), officially French Republic (in French: République française), is a transcontinental state located in the west of Europe but it has equal lands on other continents and oceans. France is constitutionally unitary republic because it has a semi-presidential regime. The capital is Paris, the official language is French, the official currency is euro and Pacific franc on Pacific lands. The number of payments in a year is 8 than 9 in Germany than 10,6 in USA. The most important tax deadlines are:

- on May 18th and June 7th

Termine Déclaration de Revenus

- on July 30th

Déclaration Impôt Solidarité et Fortune

- on October 15th

Taxe Foncière

- on December 15th

Taxe d'Habitation

The types of society are the follow:

- public companies;
- Anonymous company;
- Simplified joint stock company;
- Limited liability company;
- Economic interest group;
- European Economic interest group;
- Controlling society cross-shareholdings.