

Isi-Agricoltura 2016

ISI Agricoltura in 2016 aims to promote micro and small enterprises operating in the field of agricultural primary production of agricultural products for the purchase of new machinery and work equipment characterized by innovative solutions to significantly reduce harmful emissions and, concurrently, the reduction of the noise level or the risk of accidents or of that resulting from the performance of manual operations. The beneficiaries of ISI Agricoltura 2016 funding are micro and small enterprises operating in the field of agricultural primary production of agricultural products, the qualification as a farmer referred to in Article 2135 of the Civil Code and registered for VAT in the field agricultural. From the date of 10th November 2016 and no later than 18:00 on the day of 20th January 2017 on www.inail.it site.